To the Honorable

the Speaker of the House of Representatives,

I herewith transmit

to the Honorable House of Representatives

a Memorial Signed by a large number of the Women of this State, praying for the right of Suffrage. They claim that by virtue of the provisions of the fourteenth and fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, this right is extended to them — no distinction being made in regard to Sex. I submit this Subject to your consideration, and trust, you may feel disposed to grant the prayer of the petitioners - and extend to the Women of Nebraska this much desired privilege.

Our State was the first to extend equal

Suffrage to all men — abolishing all distinction as to color, race or nationality - and choosing for her motto

"Equality before the Law". It would be both fitting and proper, in my opinion — as well as eminently just —

That our State should now take the lead in extending this privilege or right still further, and do the first of the sisterhood of States to enfranchise woman. Should you find, in your examination of this question that the change cannot be made under our present Constitution, I suggest that you recommend that action be taken on the subject at the Convention to be held within a short time - for its amendment

Memorial of the women of Nebraska
To the Nebraska State Legislature.

To the Honorable the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

The memorial of the Women of Nebraska most respectfully showeth—

That we are citizens of the United States as declared by the XIV. article of amendments to the Constitution.

That since the adoption of the 15th Article of Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the State of Nebraska has not passed any laws to abridge the rights of any citizens to vote, but that women citizens of the United States are, nevertheless, debarred from voting by the existence of laws, providing for the registry of male citizens and for receiving and canvassing their votes only.

And, whereas, the Constitution (article 6th, section 2) declares; "That this Constitution and the laws of the United States, which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the Supreme law of the land, and all judges in every State shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution and laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

And, whereas, no distinction is made in the Constitution ~~and laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding~~ of the United States on account of sex, but the 14th. article of amendments provides that no State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the priveleges or immunities of citizens of the United States, "nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

Therefore, the exclusive laws in favor of ~~ma~~ male citizens to vote, depriving the women citizens of the equal protection of the laws in the exercise of this franchise, as guaranteed by the Constitution in relation to the elections of Representatives and Senators in Congress and of President and Vice-President of the United States, is an abridgement such as is prohibited.

The State is debarred from passing ~~&c~~ or enforcing any law thus abridging the right of citizens of the United States to vote on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; and, whereas race comprises people of ~~all races~~ both sexes, color comprises people ~~of all colors~~ of all colors, and previous condition of servitude, comprises all women in all ages existing under patriarchal, civil or feudal laws, but not under the American Constitutional laws; therefore, it is submitted that we come within all these three qualifying clauses, and, so far, it would appear, could only be excluded on account of sex; but as no distinction exists in the United States Constitution on account of sex, it is also submitted that we have, as female citizens, the same right as male citizens, and that the State cannot pass or enforce any law which abridges our privileges and immunities, as votes any more than it can do it in regard to its male citizens.

Women do not exist here in the same status as under the old monarchical system.

This Constitution has completely enfranchised her, and as a citizen she is as much vested with sovereignty in her own proper person as man.

Thus invested with the attribute of sovereignty, she cannot be deprived of it by other fellow citizens, nor debarred from exercising its prerogatives. The sovereign power of the State flows from all citizens alike, and men can only debar women citizens from their rights by the exercise of arbitrary, unjust and antiquated usurpation.

Women have as much interest in the State as men have, and whether they choose to exercise the right to vote, or not, is not the question, as applied to them any more than as applied to men; but no single woman citizen can lawfully be deprived of this, her Constitutional right, if she choose to exercise it. There is no distinction between women of native or foreign birth, provided the latter choose to become naturalized under the laws on the subject of naturalization, as they have always existed. And as your memorialists feel aggrieved under the existing laws which debar them ~~from~~ and all other woman citizens of the United States in the State of Nebraska from exercising their right to vote, your memorialists will most respectfully petition your Honorable Bodies to pass such laws which in your wisdom you shall see proper for removing the existing hindrances which debar and abridge the right of woman citizens in voting, so that they shall be subject to the same regulations therein that male citizens are; —

And your petitioners will ever pray &c, etc.

To the Honorable
Speaker and members of the House of Representatives
Gentlemen.

Since the adjournment of your honorable body in March last, I have urged the payment of the claims of the State against the General Government, on account of expenses incurred in consequence of Indian hostilities, through an agent at Washington to whom I issued a Commission for that purpose.

Through his efforts I am able to report the collection of the sum of $4.834^{94}/_{100}$.

In view of the short time that would elapse between the time of its receipt, and the meeting of your honorable body, it was not deemed advisable to so place this amount as to allow its appropriation to other purposes than that for which the appropriation was made by the General Government and it has therefore been held as a deposit in the Treasury to await such disposition as the wisdom of your honorable body may suggest.

I would respectfully recommend the adoption of such legislation as will apply this and any further amounts which may be derived from this source to the payment of such claims of our citizens as remain unpaid, on account of these claims.

I have the honor to remain

Very Respectfully.

Wm. H. Ramsey

O. Wyckoff
Secretary of the Senate

To the Honorable
The President and members of the Senate.
Gentlemen.

In accordance with Sec. 14 of the Executive article of the Constitution, I herewith return to your honorable body, in which it originated, an act entitled "an act supplementary to an act, entitled an act to provide for calling a Convention to revise, alter or amend the Constitution of the State of Nebraska" approved March 27th 1871, to which I am constrained by my views of duty, to withhold my approval and signature.

In withholding my assent to the passage of this bill, I am embarrassed by the reflection, that my views are at radical variance with the deliberate judgment of a large majority of the members of your honorable body, who like myself, have taken upon them selves the solemn obligations of an oath to support the Constitution of the State, and I have therefore availed myself of ample time for the consideration, indulging the hope that I could reconcile my views of the Constitution the general election for members of the Legislature in October 1869.

At this election, by a meagre vote the proposition for a Convention was adopted; and in accordance with this expressed will of the people, and the Constitutional provision relating to amendments, the Legislature by act approved March 27th 1871, and to which this act is supplemental) provided for the election of members, and for the convening of a Convention to revise, alter and amend the Constitution.

Under the several provisions referred to the Convention assembled on the 13th day of June 1871, and after having, by sixty eight days of labor, the duties which devolved upon them, ceased to exist as a body, and by an adjournment sine die were resolved back to the body of the people.

The result of their labor was submitted to their constituency at an election held at the time, and in the manner prescribed by the instrument, and failed to meet with the approval of the people and was rejected.

Every act in the chain of Constitutional and legal requirements having been complied with, every duty which devolved upon the Legislature, the Convention and the people having been discharged it would seem that if it were desirable that our Constitution should be amended, that we should again revert to fundamental law for authority and guidance.

Having discharged all the duties imposed by the law under which it was convened and ceased by adjournment sine die to exist as a Constitutional Convention. I am unable to see where there is any authority under the Constitution or laws, which would enable this Legislature to resuscitate the exhausted powers of the Convention, or reinvest its individual members with their judicial character.

It is proposed, however, by the provisions of this bill, without any expression of a desire on the part of the people for a Convention, or without allowing the people at large, any voice as to who shall represent their views in the formation of a fundamental law, to convene a Convention and designate the persons from the body of our citizens, who are to constitute its members.

This, it is believed, is in plain violation of the letter and spirit of the Constitution, and is at Variance with all our accepted views of a republican form of government.

It will not be denied that the powers possessed by this Legislature are such only, as will belong to the next, yet it will scarcely be claimed, that should the bill under consideration become a law, and the convention should reassemble, adopt a Constitution and submit it to a vote of the people, and it should be rejected, that the same Convention could again be legally assembled under a subsequent supplemental act.

And were such views entertained, might it not become a proper subject for serious consideration, as to how long it would be just to continue by legal enactment, the onerous duties of those who were members of the first convention, beyond the time in which they no doubt reasonably expected to be relieved from their official duties

Whereas there exist just and founded complaints concerning the discriminating and arbitrary manner in which the rates of passengers and freight are managed and controlled by the different Rail Road Companies in this State, and with a view to have the same controlled and regulated by just and uniform Laws;

Therefore be it resolved, that a Select Committee of three (3) be appointed to take in consideration and advise upon the best means to these ends, and to report back to the House by Bill or otherwise at an early day. ——
